

Lester Klink and Miss Osborne Wed; Stockwell-Stevenson Nuptials Today

THE wedding of Lester Klink and Miss Ruthel Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osborne, took place at 4 o'clock Friday evening at the Central Baptist church with the Rev. George McCall officiating. The wedding was to have taken place on Thursday, but these plans were changed when on that day Mrs. Klink's father became critically ill and underwent an operation at Hotel El Paso.

The bride was dressed for the ceremony in white georgette over white satin, worn with a large white picture hat. Only the immediate family were present. The couple will reside at 1717 East Boulevard.

Many of the season's prettiest parties have been given in compliment to Miss Osborne.

At a wedding of simple, pretty detail, at 10:30 o'clock on Saturday morning, Walter M. Stockwell and Miss Nellie Carr Stevenson were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. L. Helm and Mr. Helm. Cards were made (except the reception room). Dr. Floyd Poon performed the ceremony with only the immediate family and Miss Katherine Eiler and Frank Chalk present.

The bride was dressed in a modish trillier of midnight blue cloth, worn

Miners, Broke, Flee State; Successors Strike Gold

Denver, Colo., June 5.—Disappearing from the state just when success was about to crown their months of effort, Thomas A. McCulloch and Edmund Fuller are today fugitives from justice with charges of defrauding labor hanging over them.

The two men had been operating mines in Central City, Colo., but, according to charges filed by state labor commissioner William L. Morrissey, they had not paid their miners, and the men complained to state authorities, when, it is alleged, nearly $1000 was due on the payroll.

Just after McCulloch and Fuller disappeared the operators who took over their lease at Central City made a rich strike and are now taking out gold and silver ore to the value of $75,000 monthly.

The Outward Beauty Of Pathé

FROM the standpoint of mere beautiful APPEARANCE no instrument excels the PATHE. From the smallest PATHE made to the most entrancing "period" design PATHE acknowledges no superior—and few equals.

So if PATHE TONE is superior—which it is—and if Pathe plays all makes of records—which it does—and if the sapphire ball of the Pathe does away with needle changing—which is certainly true, then PATHE must be the FIRST CHOICE of the THOUGHTFUL provided its price is not prohibitive.

On that score we need only say that PATHE costs no more than the ORDINARY PHONOGRAPH and if you'll let us play it for you, you will discover its other qualities for yourself.

Dandruff, itching, scalp irritation, etc., point to an unhealthy condition of the scalp, which leads to thin, falling hair and premature baldness. Frequent shampooing with Cuticura Soap and hot water do much to prevent such a condition, especially if preceded by a gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment to spots of dandruff and itching.
